PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

- Do you remember "Legion" where we got the courage to learn how to dance?
- I would like to invite you to share your memories from "your times". Let me know on: president@hmhsalumni.org
- The HAS (Haddonfield Alumni Society) has redesigned the alumni website in collaboration with the Haddonfield Public Schools Superintendent, Dr. Richard Perry. Come explore it. www.hmhsalumni.org
- Did you know that we have an alliance with over 7,000 Haddonfield alumni worldwide? With an ever-growing base of graduates, these links are cultivating further bonds with and among alumni.
- The HAS has now updated our technology and modernized our website for young and older alike. See us on: www.hmhsalumni.org
- So in addition to our Alumni Newsletter, this new website, enables The Society to provide an interactive, customized experience for each visitor, including opportunities for alumni to connect with each other, view alumni events and their own class' events, such as reunions. The site has also made it easier to make online donations to the H.A.S. (Haddonfield Alumni Society) is redesigning the alumni website, in collaboration with the Haddonfield Public Schools Superintendent, Dr. Richard Perry.
- The Haddonfield Alumni Society represents an alliance of over 7,000 Haddonfield alumni across the United States and worldwide. With an ever growing base of graduates, the Alumni Society wanted to cultivate strong bonds with and among alumni, which would lay the foundation for support of critical programs, such as scholarships.
- Therefore, the HAS needed a technology solution that would modernize our current website, while providing access to young and old alike. We're achieving that now.
- For a nice enjoyable time on Wednesday, November 22nd from 5:30 to 8:00 PM at Tavistock Country Club, come join in the fun, bring some other classmate friends, see old friends, enjoy some great finger food, good conversations, photos of previous events, and more. Cash bar. Dress-casual is fine. $10 per person donation at the door.
- On the Saturday after Thanksgiving, November 25th, we meet at the HMHS school library to honor former students who have achieved much in life, and teachers who have greatly influenced our lives. There will be a social hour from 10-11 AM with donuts and beverages and the Annual Meeting will start promptly at 11 AM. It will include the election of the HAS Board of Trustees for the upcoming year and the presentation of the Lifetime Achievement Awards. Come celebrate with us.

2017 Lifetime Achievement Award (LAA) Recipients

- Donald C. Burton (HMHS Class of 1956)

Donald C. Burton was born in Lawnside and his family moved to the Sadlertown Community of Haddon Township when he was in 5th grade. He was raised in a very positive, hard working family environment where everyone worked hard to make ends meet and improve themselves. His father set the example by working hard and making sure his children knew "there are no free rides in life". Despite his many chores and family responsibilities, he found time to study hard and achieve on the football field. Don and his younger brother Bob, also known as "shorty", were outstanding running backs for Haddonfield Memorial High School (HMHS) when they were Colonial Conference Champions. After high school, Don volunteered to serve his country; earned his College degree; worked hard in the US Post Office for 7 years; excelled as a policeman for 31 years and retired from the law enforcement field in 1992. In retirement, he established a very successful Bail Bond Business with 3 offices and employing 13 employees; served as a member and leader of numerous law enforcement and civic organizations; and has received numerous awards, several for bravery, and honors. Don has been married twice with four sons from the first marriage and two sons from the second. He set the example for his boys and inspired them to achieve, get a good education and be successful in life. He and his lovely wife, Marcia, enjoy his retirement and travel for a month each year to St. Martin, West Indies, and Key West, FL.

- J. Walter Levering (HMHS Class of 1963)

Walter Levering is recognized for his exemplary achievements in life as a war hero; successful businessman; "giving back" to his schools, church and community; and being a great family man. He was born on June 19, 1945 at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and his family moved to Haddonfield in 1952. He graduated from Haddonfield Memorial High School (HMHS) in 1963 where he was a varsity wrestler, played football and was Class Vice President. Upon graduation, Walter attended the University of Virginia; however, in early 1966, with the war looming in Vietnam, he volunteered for the Army Warrant Officer Helicopter Flight School and went on active duty in June 1966. On December 21, 1966, Walt took leave and married his "high school sweetheart", Karen Funsten. In June, 1967, he graduated from flight school and immediately received orders to Vietnam. Helicopter pilots were some of our real heroes in Vietnam and did "superhuman things" to save their fellow soldiers at the risk of their own lives. Walt Levering was one of those heroes and, during his first tour in Vietnam, he was awarded the Silver Star and The Distinguished Flying Cross. Walt then volunteered for Officer Candidate School at Ft. Sill, OK, was awarded his 2nd Lieutenant bars and returned for his second tour in Vietnam where he distinguished himself again. During his service, in addition to the Silver Star and the Distinguished Flying Cross, Walt was awarded two Bronze Stars, the Army Commendation medal, the Air Medal with 26 Oak Leaf Clusters and the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry. In June 1971, Walter left the service to spend more time with his family and join the business world. In civilian life, he was well known as an excellent business man, a supporter of community and church activities and a terrific family man. Walt and his family moved back to Haddonfield, later moved to Sherborne, MA and finally settled in Charlottesville, VA where he was very involved with educational activities and his alma mater, the University of Virginia. Humble, brave, ethical, patriotic, positive, adventurous and always smiling describe Walt Levering very well. In the early hours of Tuesday, April 23, 2013, Walt ended his brave and long fought battle with leukemia with his devoted wife Karen, "high school sweetheart", and children at his side. On November 18, 2013, a perfect day for flying, J. Walter Levering was quite fittingly buried at Arlington Cemetery with full military honors.

- Dr. Robert G. Traver (HMHS Class of 1974)

Dr. Robert G. Traver is recognized for his achievements in the fields of engineering and education, his military service, in the United States Army Reserves and in Desert Storm, his leadership and contributions nationally and internationally in water resources management and his contributions to Villanova University in steam hydraulics, urban hydrology, water quality and measures to mitigate storm water effects of urbanization. Upon his graduation from HMHS, Rob followed in his father's footsteps and attended Virginia Military Institute, receiving a B.S. in Civil Engineering. He is a retired Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army Reserves and a veteran of Desert Storm. His advanced education includes a M.S. in Civil Engineering from Villanova University and a PhD from Penn State University. Dr. Traver has been a member of the Water Resources and Environmental Engineering Program at the Villanova Center and has been the main force in creating a Stormwater Green Infrastructure Demonstration and a Research Park on the campus of Villanova University. In 2016 Villanova University presented Dr. Robert Traver with the prestigious Outstanding Faculty Research Award. This Award is presented in recognition of the central importance of scholarship to Villanova's academic excellence. He lectures abroad, including China. Following Hurricane Katrina, the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) recognized Dr. Traver's leadership of its Task Committee on Flood Safety Policies and Practices and for his work as Editor of the Committee's report, "Flood Risk Management: Call for a National Strategy." Dr. Traver is an associate editor of the ASCE "Journal of Sustainable Water in the Built Environment" and serves on Pennsylvania's Department of Environmental Protection's Water Resources Advisory Committee. At a time when our planet has so many environmental and political challenges, it is extremely fitting that the HMHS Lifetime Achievement Award be awarded to Dr. Robert Traver.

Haddonfield's Best Kept Secret: The Generosity of HMHS Alumni

- Perhaps, we have been too modest, too circumspect, for too long. For over forty years, Haddonfield Public Schools students have been the beneficiary of the generous support of alumni benefactors. Only recently did the Haddonfield Educational Trust, the repository for the HMHS Scholarship Funds and for numerous school fundraising projects, take stock of these generous donations and ask the Haddonfield Alumni Society for the opportunity to share some of this good news of your generosity.
- At Senior Awards Night in June 2017, the graduating class of 2017 were granted numerous scholarships, many of which had their genesis from individual alums, a graduating class, or families of alumni/ae. The classes of '51, '53, '56, '63, '82 and '97, all provided scholarships or awards. Several scholarships were donated in memory of alumni including: John Manning, Bobby Fulton, Peter Firscht, Sara Tarditi Gallagher, John Adler, Jeff Maiatico, Paul Sabelli, Dr. Samuel Platt Jr., Anne Sullivan Skernolis, Jayne Valecce, Cynthia Phillips Paolucci and Jane Cavanna Bleakly. In addition, there were generous alumni donors who wished to remain anonymous. In total, scholarship donations stemming from alumni and their families exceeded $350,000 for the 2017 school year.
- Beyond the scholarship donations, alumni have played an integral role in a variety of school funding projects. The Class of '64 donated to the Art department at the high school so that the students could have a new kiln. The class of '54 chose to dedicate funds for a poetry room located in the high school library.
- The Haddonfield Educational Trust also wants to acknowledge the numerous alumni/ae who have played pivotal roles in supporting "Lights, Camera, Action" (auditorium renovation), HMHS Turf Field, Central Playground and Tatem Playground projects and the annual golf tournaments fundraisers. These significant improvements to school facilities could not have been accomplished without the generous support of our graduates.
- When a more complete list of alumni donors has been assembled, the HET will share that on the websites for both the alumni and the trust.
- If you have an interest in supporting the students of the Haddonfield Public Schools through a gift or donation, contact Dr. Joseph Serico, Haddonfield Educational Trust, at jserico1@verizon.net or 609-314-1958.

Haddonfield School District News

by Dr. Richard Perry, Superintendent

Dear Alumni,

As we embark upon the 2017-18 school-year, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the Haddonfield Alumni for your continued commitment, volunteerism, mentorships, and support. Everything that you do for our students and community is truly and deeply appreciated. I believe much of our students' successes can be directly attributed to the support of our Alumni and the high standards that have been set along HMHS pathways before them. By way of effectively collaborating and working together, establishing a shared vision for our students, we have been able to provide opportunities for them to reach and achieve their dreams and- because primarily of the efforts of our Alumni- continue the legacy of Haddonfield School District's high-level of Academic Educational Excellence in which we persist to be one of the top school districts in the state, region, and nation.

This school-year will include many new innovative district-wide initiatives and programs that will focus on student-centered instructional strategies, involving Divergent and Critical Thinking Approaches, Technology Instructional Based Innovation, Creativity, and Advanced Problem-Solving Strategies, in addition to STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Mathematics) programs and student-driven, collaborative activities. Robotics will be one of the new initiatives at all the schools. Diversity, School Climate, and Culture will, in addition, be primary areas of focus, involving professional development for teachers and programs for students.

New courses at the high school include AP Latin, Show Choir (increasing the number of Fine Art electives) and Lab Tech and American Sign Language Student Internship opportunities. There have been, also, revisions to Science (Next Generation Science Standards) and Chemistry Curricular, Mathematics Curricular Updates/Re-alignment, English Curricular Updates, and World Language Updates/Revisions in all levels of Spanish. At the Middle School, Science Courses are being aligned with the Next Generation Science Standards in terms of integrating Problem-Solving Skills and Authentic Learning Experiences that foster a student-centered instructional approach. The HMS Community will, also, embark on a Middle School Self-Study in which staff and community members will evaluate each area of the Middle School Community in order to ultimately improve programs. At the Elementary Schools, One Elementary School One Book will begin in early 2018, the Ambassador Dog Program and Tri-State Response Team will be high-lighted, Robotics Club Grades 1-3, STEM Club Grades 4-5, and other initiatives and programs will be implemented.

School Construction is on its way with much being accomplished over the summer months in terms of repair to all of our school buildings. HMHS B-Wing (Reynolds) Wing has been going through much construction in regard to repairing the B- gym and rebuilding the cafeteria. The District is, also, at this time seeking to fundraise for much needed instructional support for expansion of curricular programs and support of extracurricular programs, involving athletics and the arts. This will include naming the B-gym on the outside of the building once repaired, placing plaques on outdoor tables, classrooms and hallways, and a brick project.

In terms of staff, we have two new dynamic administrators at the middle school and high school. Ms. Tracy Matozzo (formerly the Dean of Students at the high school) has been appointed to the HMS School Principalship and Ms. Tammy McHale, previously Special Education Director from Clearview Regional School District, has become the new Dean of Students at HMHS

In closing, again, I truly appreciate everything that you do to support Haddonfield School District.

Best Wishes for continued success-

Alumni in the News: Damian Mogavero

- Damian Mogavero, class of 89, is an innovator. He has made his mark in the restaurant industry as the founder and CEO of Avero. While CFO of a New York-based restaurant group, he witnessed the dysfunction at restaurants when chefs and managers did not have the right tools and information to run their operations efficiently. Furthermore, Damian recognized that the restaurant industry needed easy-to-use software that could help food and beverage operators reach faster, smarter, more profitable decisions, while providing outstanding service to their guests.
- Avero Inc., a service that Damian describes as a “web-based business intelligence provider”, aggregates over $24 billion in food and beverage data and has accumulated over 10,000 food and beverage operations worldwide that entrust Avero with their data. Damian’s expertise has been widely recognized and written about in publications such as The Wall Street Journal, USA Today, Fast Company, Fortune Small Business, WIRED, Food Arts and Sante. Most recently, Damian’s exciting project, The Underground Culinary Tour, was featured on CBS Saturday Morning. Click on the link below to follow the Tour which educates restaurant leaders on emerging trends, using New York City as a restaurant laboratory.

2017 SPORTS UPDATE

During the 2016-2017 school year our athletic teams compiled a record of 310 wins and 84 losses, leading to winning 11 out of 20 Conference titles, 10 Sectional titles, and 5 New Jersey State Group Championships. HMHS has won 23 State Championships in just the past four years, among the best, if not the best known record of championships than any other high school in the State of New Jersey. For the 39th year in a row, Haddonfield Memorial High School was the recipient of the Colonial Conference All-Sports Award, given to the school with the best conference win-loss record, and for the 14th straight year Haddonfield Memorial High School will be declared winner of the NJSIAA Shop Rite Cup for Group II, an award given to the school with the most sectional and state championships for each of the 6 groups in the entire State. Haddonfield Memorial High School is the only school in the State of New Jersey that has won this prestigious award every year since its inception. Lastly, for the second year in a row, HMHS was the recipient of the 2016-2017 Colonial Conference Sportsmanship Award!
